

SHORT DIRECTOR BIO

Hassan El-Amin - Director

Hassan El-Amin was an odd kid. Typically, Black kids from Detroit don't grow up loving Kubrick and Kurosawa. He blames his odd parents for exposing him to arthouse cinema at a young age. He graduated from Howard University's film school and moved to Los Angeles to pursue his dream of becoming a Director. He currently works as an Emmy Award winning Television Editor for the entertainment news show Extra.
