CV – DIRECTOR

What's the movie about?

This film deals with child abuse and how this can influence a person's life even if this person doesn't remember anything.

Is the story evolving in the present?

The story develops into today. The story takes place in two seasons. Today and the past. A big part of the film has a dream like sensation.

Are the spaces realistic?

The place is realistic and every day. Besides, we follow Anna's daily routine.

A&Q

You mean?

We see how Anna behaves in her house and her going out for dinner with her friend. Absolutely every day things for all of us.

The rhythm of the film, is slow or fast?

The first part of the film which deals with the acquaintance of the protagonist, montage and plans will be slow, while it develops, we will see fast and short cuts.

is there anything the viewer should notice?

Lastly, there's something which the spectator has to look out for. An important detail has to do with a frame which will be in Anna's house.

Is there a change in the story?

Yes, because Anna's mother hides the truth and pressures Anna to forget it.
