Logline: Private Investigator John Latimer finds himself the target of his own visceral investigation.

A man in a dark jacket is seen from behind, holding a camera up to his eye as if taking a photograph. He is standing in an outdoor setting, possibly a street or park, with trees and buildings visible in the background. The lighting is somewhat dim, suggesting an overcast day or late afternoon.

Synopsis:

Local government worker, Thomas Gaunt, suspects his wife Carolyn is cheating on him so he hires a private investigator.

However, the PI, John Latimer, turns out to be the very man that Carolyn is with.

Avoiding being caught in the act, John and Carolyn must fake the investigation, ensuring they don't get discovered.
