

CHELSEA MUSCAT

ABOUT

Chelsea Muscat is a Writer, Director, & Cinematographer born and raised on the island of Gozo until she was nine. She studied at the SUNY Purchase Film BFA in New York, her biggest focus being directing and cinematography. She has shadowed Stranger Things DP Tim Ives, worked as an Editorial Assistant on the feature film This Changes Everything that premiered at TIFF. Her own work has screened with GIF (Girls in Film), at Tribeca's My City Our Story, & Spazzju Kreativ and her senior film received the Sol Turrell award for outstanding film. She often explores themes of love, abandonment, and isolation in fiction, documentary, She has gotten involved in the environmental issues that are currently threatening her island. Her short film about the issue was published by all the media outlets in Malta. She is now the secretary-treasurer of Malta ARCH an organization interested in preserving the environment which is in the process of becoming an NGO.

EDUCATION

Filmmaking BFA from SUNY Purchase
PURCHASE,NY,USA | 2016 - 2020

FILMOGRAPHY

Editorial Assistant on Feature Film "This Changes Everything"

Directed by Tom Donahue| NYC, USA 2018
World Premiere at TIFF (Toronto International Film Fest)

Short Film "Ganvie"

Directed & Shot by Chelsea Muscat | Benin, West Africa
2018

Short Film, "I Lost Myself When I Found You"

Directed & Shot by Chelsea Muscat | USA/Malta 2018

Short Film "Searching For The Wave"

Directed, Written & Shot by Chelsea Muscat |NYC, USA 2021

Cinematographer on Short Film "VOYR"

Directed by Sasha Perez | NYC,USA 2021

Cinematographer / Co-Director, "Armier Bay"
Feature Film

Directed by Oliver Mallia & Chelsea Muscat| Malta , 2022

FILMMAKER