

The long-awaited Bulgarian film "In the Heart of the Machine" is almost here, promising to tell us a shocking story.

Martin Makariev's film, in addition to an impressive cast, attracts attention with a plot inspired by real events that took place in Bulgaria in the late 70's. A group of prisoners, start their daily routine in one of the Kremikovtzi lathe factories. They woke up that day, not knowing that a strange incident will turn their lives upside down forever.

The characters - convicted of serious crimes, totally cut out like lepers by society. In just a few hours, they go through a storm of physical and emotional situations, which will bring to their souls an unexpected catharsis.

In the Heart of the Machine is a film about the complexity of human nature, forever wandering between the horrible and the beautiful. The story of the beast who became a human. And humanity can be born in the most unsuspected places.

The bright, exciting images will come to life in front of us in the faces of the most beloved Bulgarian actors: Hristo Shopov, Ivaylo Hristov, Julian Vergov, Alexander Sano, Hristo Petkov, Stoyan Doychev, Vladimir Zombori and Bashar Rahal, and they will be joined by the Macedonian theater and movie star Igor Angelov.

The music is the work of the composer Viktor Stoyanov, who has worked with the great Hans Zimmer in many international projects.

The beautiful picture is brought to us by the up and coming DOP Andrei Andreev.

The production is realized by the company "Forward Pictures Entertainment" with producers Alexander Penev and Martin Makariev and is distributed by "Silvernoise" by Alexander Sano.
