

“Race with Love and Confidence”

Scene - How do I shine?

Carrie K. Thomas

(570) 972-7332 (C)

(917) 727-3791 (B)

May 29th 2019

Copyright-

Registration #TXu 2-104-629

January 31st 2021

WGE- I340909

Self- Published poetry book

“Race with Love and Confidence”

Poem- “How do I Shine!?”

Page - 14

$19.99 USD

View on Amazon

ASIN: B087R812R1

How do I shine!?

How do I shine?

Like a shimmer so bright back in time where

Clothes didn't fit right, I cut em in two glammed up!

I'll be damn if I ain't looking fine. NaySayers, fat shamers, haters Shut up!

How do I shine?

Glistening, listen man to only positivity, my daddy gave me poetry, my ma spirituality, taught me to hold my head high straight individuality!

How do I shine!?

"Take a good look" this shape, curve, type ain't in no book!

confidence over insecurities

Faith over doubt

bury negativity

Best believe that don't mean a thing

shallow minded statements like "she's too big"

Not too big to shine & bling though,

She's pretty in the face
And gorgeous all over though!

I don't want the fat one,
You mean the one you admiring though

Ha

That's how I shine, override your frivolous pride in what beauty is supposed to be. I shine even in the dark beaming light setting trends being me.

That's how I shine!?

2016 (pages are numbered as dates)

© Carrie K. Thomas

www.carriekthomas.net

