Los Angeles, CA October 2, 2020

Eye in the Sky Pictures Presents Enipheres. A high concept fantasy drama short film with a hint of sci-fi is currently seeking financing to produce the feature length version. Written and produced by Lynne Newton, the film features a diverse and inclusive cast with strong female characters.

The film opens in ancient Egypt with the lead character Enipheres (ee-nif-fer-rees), a fierce warrior of her time who has been chosen by a super advanced alien species to be the defender of humans against a corrupt group called Nebula. The second half is set in modern day Los Angeles where Edie, a film school educator, discovers through her dreams and visions that she is Enipheres reincarnated. Edie must warn the world and set forth the path for all humanity.

The film explores the power of the human mind when we change it for the good of all. The message and theme throughout touches on social topics that are plaguing our world today.
