To Whom It May Concern,

As founder of award winning production company, 247LC Films, I am proud to submit my short film, Coke Boys to your prestigious festival. Coke Boys is a hard hitting, gritty crime drama set in modern day Los Angeles. The film pays homage to 90s crime dramas such as Menace II Society, Boyz n the Hood, Juice, and New Jack City.

Cain is one of the biggest drug dealers in South Central, Los Angeles, supplying the streets with coke and pills and taking out anyone standing in his way. The operation becomes shaky after one of his crew members turns police informant, creating tension from within. Cain is caught between a booming drug operation and disloyalty among his associates.

Coke Boys stars All American's Omar Cook as Cain, Adonis Armstrong (SKANDALOUZ) as Trey, and Clay Cureton (Expunged) as Detective Harvey. As well as starring, the film is directed and produced by Omar Cook and Adonis Armstrong, with Cook writing and editing as well. The powerful creative duo of Cook and Armstrong has racked up over 20 awards in 2022 alone from their short films SKANDALOUZ and Deadly Thoughts, and now Coke Boys.

Coke Boys has received great reviews including 8/10 from Film Threat and 4/5 from Screen Critix as well as multiple awards including Best Actor, Best Crime Short, and Critics Choice Award for Best Narrative Short at Virgin Spring Cinefest. Coke Boys brings the tone and vibe of hit shows such as Power, Snowfall and BMF while telling a story of loyalty and betrayal but teaching a lesson that the street life never has a positive ending for anyone involved.

My team at 247LC is excited and honored to showcase this outstanding urban crime drama at your festival and we look forward to working with you!

Sincerely,

Omar Cook
