Summary

Funny House Productions Presents "Ronnie and Terry: Inside the V.V.A." a comedy series by Heather Barette (Ronnie) and Christi Pedigo (Terry) about two employees of a time management bureaucracy who get into myriad shenanigans as they learn that there is more to life beyond their jobs. Ronnie and Terry are like the Rosencrantz and Guildenstern of the T.V.A.* in the Disney+ Loki Series. They are the Laverne and Shirley of time and space! *T.V.A. (Time Variant Authority) has been changed to V.V.A. (Vine Variable Authority) to protect the innocent... us. To protect us. lol

Episodes 1-3

Ep. 1 Pilot: You were introduced to the Time Variant Authority In "Loki" on Disney+, but get ready for an even closer look at two lower-ranking employees in this spoof of the workplace. Here at the "Vine Variable Authority," everything is not as it seems! Episode 1 takes us out of a comic book and into reality as we meet Ronnie and Terry, coworkers at the V.V.A. They aren't friends. At least, not right now. Or ever. Who knows!

Ep. 2 Crush: Ronnie sees a new side to Terry, as her little office crush -- V.V.A. Guard E-25 -- has her feeling the heat... and Ronnie feeling for her bag of popcorn.

Ep. 3 Vine Jumping: Ronnie may have just done a very, very bad thing. That's right, folks -- she's jumped... into a vine! Not good.

Episodes 4-7

Ep. 4 Power Outage: A blackout at the V.V.A. leads to Ronnie & Terry taking advantage of the downtime with some, shall we say, questionable workplace behavior...

Ep. 5 Gossip: It's all about the girl talk. Bring on the snacks! As Ronnie would say, "Peanut butter cookies are the ideal gossip snack, everybody knows that."

Ep. 6 Panic: Terry has to learn how to take a friggin' chill pill! (Spoiler: This skill eludes her.)

Ep. 7 Hero: Ronnie's got plans for her and Terry to profit off of time travel but Terry's new chilled out attitude gets her thinking about doing good in the multiverse. Could Terry be willing to jump into a vine to do good? Ridiculous!

Episodes 8-10

Ep. 8 Interrogation: The heat is on as E-25 interrogates Ronnie & Terry. Terry melts under pressure while Ronnie sneaks out to uncover a major secret of the V.V.A.!

Ep. 9 Lies: Ronnie presents the truth of their past to Terry, who obviously can't handle the truth! But wait, there's something else... like, something else else!!

Ep. 10 It's Time: This may be the end of Season 1 but it's just the beginning for Ronnie & Terry. As the guards close in on them, it's time for Ronny & Terry to leave the comfort (was it was really that comfortable?) of the V.V.A. for something new.

Heather Barette, Co-Creator

Heather Barette is a comedic actress and television writer who has a strong background in theatre, sketch comedy and sports journalism. She is from Los Angeles, CA and in her spare time enjoys reading, kickboxing and pretending she didn't peak in middle school. Heather is also a hardy dog lover, a passionate baker -- particularly of delicious breads and cakes -- and a horror movie buff, no matter how much they may make her urinate herself. She grew up a huge sports fan, and her obsession with the Dodgers, Lakers and Rams often toes the line of toxic. She graduated as an Economics major from UC Santa Barbara, and never thought she would go down this Hollywood road, but wouldn't have it any other way. Heather formed Funny House Productions with Christi Pedigo in 2022. "Ronnie & Terry: Inside the V.V.A." is their first co-created project. Heather (Ronnie) wrote, directed, and created original music for the series.

Christi Pedigo, Co-Creator

Christi Pedigo is an award-winning actor with "sunny blonde girl-next-door appeal" (Steven Stanley of StageScene LA). She earned her bachelor of Theater Arts at Santa Clara University with a Theatre Scholarship. In New York City, she received an OOB (Off-Off Broadway Review) Award for her performance as Brooke Ashton in "Noises Off" at the Gallery Players of Park Slope. She appeared Off-Broadway in "Girls Town" at Players Theatre and with Amy Redford in "Golden Ladder" at Actors Playhouse. She had a lead role in the independent feature film "Film School Confidential" which won a Gold Award at WorldFest Houston. Upon moving to Los Angeles, Christi Pedigo formed She Did It Productions and made five short films and several comedy series for YouTube. She was in the award winning series, "Just the Tip" (Best Ensemble, Best Web Series, multiple festivals). She has performed on stage at local theatres in Southern California and as costume characters for Queen Mary's Dark Harbor and Chill events. In 2018, Christi Pedigo performed with the theatre company trip. in "4Play: Sex in a Series" at The Actor's Company in Los Angeles and ended the year with a special performance of her solo comedy show "Bunny the Elf LIVE!" in Los Angeles, CA. In 2019, "Bunny the Elf LIVE!" went on to win awards during the Hollywood Fringe Festival in 2019 and ended the year with special Christmas performances in LA and Fullerton. The script is available on Amazon Kindle. Christi studied acting and writing at Leslie Kahn & Co, and The Groundlings. She is also the author of the episodic story "Vampire Singularity" published on Kindle Vella. Christi formed Funny House Productions with Heather Barette in 2022. "Ronnie & Terry: Inside the V.V.A." is their first co-created project. Christi (Terry) performed additional voices, created original artwork and music for the series, and was technical director.
