WINNER BEST LGBTQ FEATURE FILM
Seattle Film Festival 2022

Environmentalist Larry takes an experimental virility drug to woo back his wife Mary who's having an affair with Barry who works for Thierry who plans to destroy the remaining habitat of the endangered pocket mouse. Larry and Barry both take a double dose of the virility drug and when it makes them gay their entire world view changes. Barry resists and attempts ridiculous 'conversion' treatments; Larry discovers the joys of being a gay man. They both get what they want in the end.

“Ridiculously in your face funny” “Perfect send-up of 1970s B movie classics” “Best comedy this year!”

Director's Statement

In the summer of 2020 as the pandemic sieged our society and no vaccine was proven effective, I had this silly idea about what would happen if the covid vaccine turned men gay. Of course it's a ridiculous idea, and eventually conspiracy theories circulated to that effect.

But then I thought, what if a virility drug turned men gay. And the idea for this campy gay screwball sex comedy took off.

We filmed in the spring and summer of 2021, with additional scenes filmed in February 2022.

The film was finished in May 2022.

Audiences laugh so hard they miss half the jokes.

Paul Bright has shown us a big piece of his body of work! The humor and acting combine to making this film memorable...I know I'll never forget it! Pocket Mouse Protector by Paul Bright....no one else makes films like this!! Enjoy the fun art.

Yelena King and Jonas Israel discover their virility drug is turning men gay.

Samson Syharath has never felt better.

It just feels right.

It's not you. It's me.
