Logline

Two researchers who discover a suspicious couple while investigating a bionic theft, and they track them to find the truth about the case, but accidentally uncover a deeper secret.

Synopsis

A major accident occurs in the bionic laboratory and the famous Dr. Shawn tragically dies in the lab.

The two researchers are on holiday when they suddenly spot a suspicious couple, the girl named Lucia who resembles a bionic man as she is wearing the lab's data glasses. After exchange, the two researchers decide to follow Connor and Layla and investigate the truth of the accident.

Connor takes Lucia into a shop and he soon spots the two researchers following him. Lucia then buys him a gift card, but he is anxious about how to deal with the two researchers. He pretends to be happy to accept the card and threw it into a nearby bin. Later, the leader finds the contents of the card and becomes more convinced of his missing bionic man.

The leader intercepts Layla, while the other researcher is held hostage by Connor. During the standoff, Connor eventually kill Lucia in anger as she is unable to escape the bionic system.

However, the team leader suddenly receives a call from Military Technology, which reveals that the leader was responsible for the accident at the lab, and that he stole the bionic to provide data to Military Technology, and that the stolen bionic is Connor.

Finally, leader does not anticipate that the military technician he speaks to is also a bionic human with an emotional system. The leader is afraid of the rise of artificial intelligence, so he kills the Doctor. However, the bionic men have already infiltrate human society.

Story

It begins with the theft of a lab bionic man and a doctor had been murder. Secondly, the researcher and his leader stumble upon rogo and layla, and they determine that layla is probably the lab's bionic man. Thirdly, rogo tries to give layla independent emotions until they get into a fight with the two researchers. He eventually kills layla in frustration and escape.
