

Audrey Geyer

PO Box 1325 Maumee, OH 43537
(810)772-9628 AudreyGeyer@aol.com

EDUCATION

1984-1988: University of Michigan, Ann Arbor MI
Graduated with a BA in Film/Video Studies & English Literature
1992-1994: New York University, NYC NY
Graduated with a Masters in Social Work, MSW

VIDEO PRODUCTION EXPERIENCE & DOCUMENTARIES

2007-Present: Visions: Integrated Planning and Video Production (Visions) Founder and Executive Producer/Director of a non-profit 501(c) 3 independent video production company registered in metro Detroit. Involved in all aspects of the production of social affairs documentaries: grant writing, pre-production, production and post-production including promotion, multi-market broadcast & DVD distribution as well as the organization and implementation of audience engagement campaigns.

Current 30-minute Tribal Peacemaking documentary is in the fundraising phase. Working titled is 'Tribal Peacemaking: A Path to Sacred Justice for All.'

'Warrior Lawyers: Defenders of Sacred Justice' (2021) One-hour documentary on Native American Tribal Justice and Racial Equity that is airing locally and nationally on PBS. A trailer of the program can be viewed at <https://vimeo.com/365613227>. PBS Sponsors include MI Humanities Council, W.K. Kellogg Advised Fund, First Foundation, Dentons US, LLC, Rush Group, LLC and the AMB Foundation. Project in the post-production phase: promotions, DVD/Streaming distribution as well as the outreach, organization and implementation of an audience engagement campaign locally and nationally.

'Our Fires Still Burn: The Native American Experience' (2013) One-hour documentary on the Midwest contemporary Native American experience. Broadcast nationally on PBS for four years by NETA with broadcast licensing by Vision Maker Media and the Corporation for Public Broadcasting. PBS Sponsors included numerous tribal, corporate and foundations such as the W.K. Kellogg Foundation and Dakotta Systems (full list at www.ourfiresstillburn.com). Documentary has been distributed widely throughout the educational and home video markets and reviewed by prominent national publications such as Booklist and the School Library Journal and promoted on TV and radio outlets. Successful and wide-sweeping community engagement campaign throughout the Midwest—Tribal organizations, public libraries, universities, community colleges, museums and diversity nonprofits (see web site list). View 'Our Fires Still Burn' at <https://vimeo.com/103901657> (password geyeraudrey).

2000-Present: Audrey Geyer Productions, LLC

Owner and Executive Producer/Director of full-service production company for contractual clients focusing on promotional, educational and instructional videos. Engaged in all phases of the production process. View 3-minute promo for nonprofit Zaman International at following link: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ulGWSQXPMJc>. And a 15-minute educational video on Detroit housing segregation entitled, 'Hiding in Plain Sight: The Walls That Divide Us,' at <http://youtu.be/Qh42TGld1HY>.

2000- 2007: GL Productions, LLC, Brighton MI

Co-Owner, Producer & Assistant Director of an independent documentary production company focusing on health related and public affairs documentaries. Responsibilities also included the promotion and distribution of projects.

'The Healing Prophet: Solanus Casey' (2006) One-hour documentary profile on the renowned Detroit Capuchin Friar and the Solanus Casey Center. Broadcast on WTVS Detroit PBS and nationally on EWTN TV as well as various cable TV stations across the country and internationally. Been widely distributed to the retail, educational and home video markets and thru local community screening events. Featured in major publications such as the Detroit Free Press and promoted on local TV and radio outlets.

'But You Still Look So Well...Living with MS' (2005) 85-minute follow-up documentary on Multiple Sclerosis. Broadcast nationally on PBS by NETA. Received PBS Sponsorship support from large corporations such as CarmarkRx, The Scooter Store and Endless Pools. Featured in Booklist and positively reviewed on prominent medical web sites. DVD distributed widely to the educational, healthcare and home video markets.

'Turning American: A German Immigrant's Story' (2003) 85-minute documentary profile broadcast on the five major MI PBS stations with Sponsorship support from MI businesses. Reviewed as an outstanding video by Booklist. One-hour version of the documentary entitled, "My Hitler Youth," also produced and distributed to the educational & home video markets.

'But You Look So Well...Living with MS' (2001) One-hour documentary on coping with the invisible symptoms of Multiple Sclerosis. Broadcast nationally on PBS by NETA and received Sponsorship support from two large MS drug companies, Teva NeuroScience & Biogen, Inc. Featured in the National MS Society's Publication, InsideMS and on prominent medical web sites. Distributed widely to the educational, healthcare and home video markets.

ADDITIONAL EXPERIENCE

Fall 1991: Bill Moyer's Public Affairs Television, NYC NY

Interned at this renowned documentary production company. Engaged in administrative, promotional and production duties.

Summer 1987: WTVS Detroit Public Television, Detroit MI

Interned in the production department of a major Michigan PBS station. Assisted in various phases of program production.

REFERENCES AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST