

"LENTIL SOUP"

Synopsis

Having accumulated ideas, influences, and beliefs from people around her, Emily goes through life, carrying these influences in the form of a wooden structure worn on the back that supports many magnifying glasses hanging in front of her face. She interacts with the world in a distorted off centered manner, until she runs into someone who tries to get to know her up close and this encounter makes her crush her structure and see freely for the first time.

Director, writer, editor: Vartist (Var Sahakyan)

Director of photography : François Szabowski

Starring:

Claire Hoffmann

Guillaume Champeval

Eugénie Jasko

Frédérique Marlot

Laurence Barrand

Théo Dos Santos

Jason Mekadji

Laëtitia Malo

Jelena Vucicevic

Lighting, sound recording: Dimitri Papadimitriou

Sound Recording: Pierre Orcel

Assistant on the set : Olga Listrova

Original music score, set design and props by Vartist

Additional music by Peter Bradley Fulgoni J.S.Bach "Prelude & Fugue in C minor"

Sound effects:

Joseph SARDIN "Plates"

Mcmikai "Pigeons"

Straget "Cranes"

Christislord "Psalm118cw"