

INTRODUCTION TO CHAMPARAN TALKIES

Champaran Talkies is Nationally and Internationally know production house co owned by Bollywood and Hollywood actress Neetu Chandra and National Award Winning film maker Nitin Neera Chandra. Champaran Talkies is into film production in different Indian languages. They own an OTT channel also call “BEJOD”. Bejod is the online video streaming Over The Top (OTT) platform launched by Champaran Talkies. The name is synonymous with best quality content in the languages of Bihar (India) viz. Bhojpuri, Maithili and Magahi.

The platform offers content across various categories like Movie, Music Videos, Short Films, Interviews, Documentaries, etc. Champaran Talkies and BEJOD is committed to bring the best in the languages of Bihar. BEJOD offers a comfortable and user-friendly viewing experience incorporating latest video streaming technology with amazing audio-visual quality. It's your BEJOD, in your own language. BEJOD can be accessed at www.bejod.in and it's Android Mobile App is available on Google Play Store.

Works of Nitin Neera Chandra

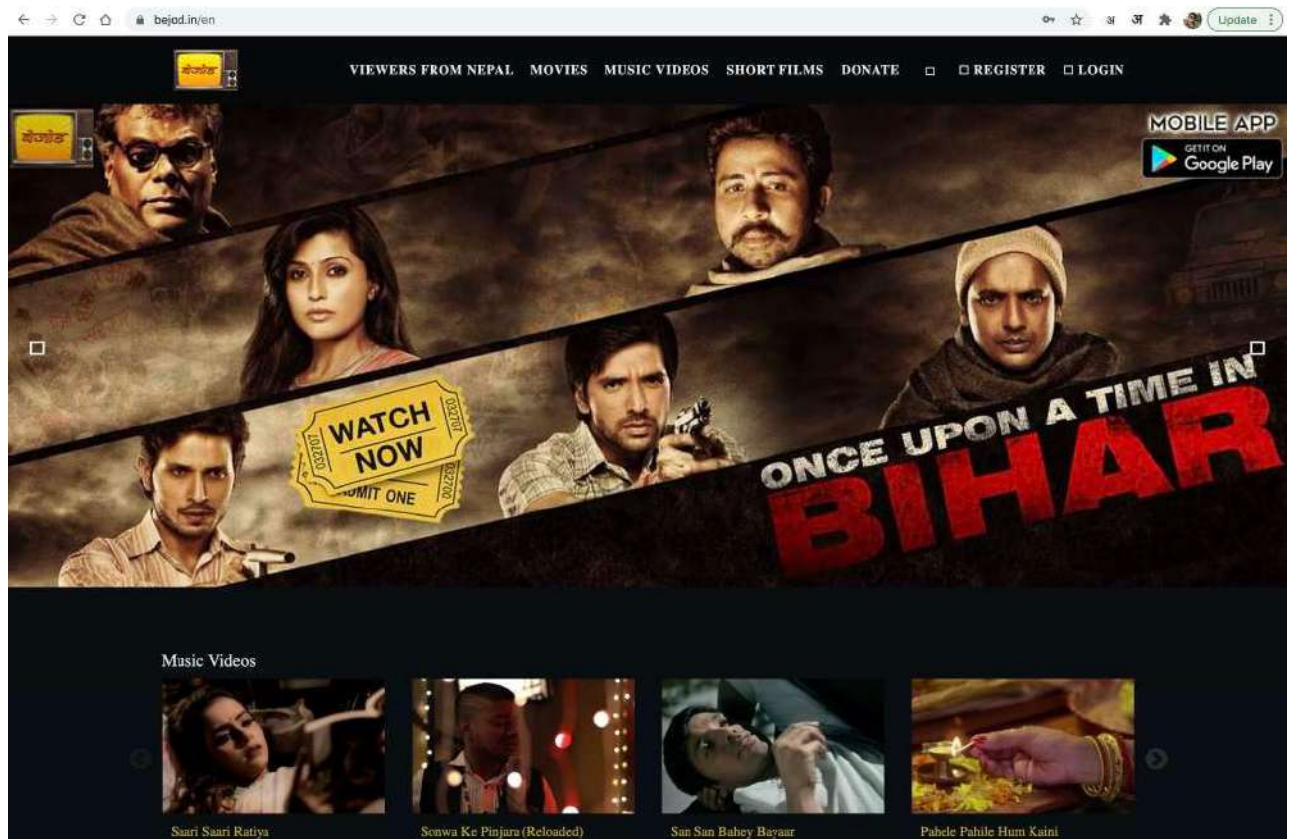

Feature Films

Music Videos

About BEJOD

Champaran Talkies also owns Bejod OTT channel where companies like HDFC Bank, Sayamev Developers, Tata Harrier, Tata Tea, JBL Sound, Travel Baites, etc are our sponsors. We sell our film on our OTT and also have got tie ups with various satellite channels and other OTTs. Zee and Star are our clients.

Nitin Neera Chandra's Profile

Nitin Neera Chandra is a National Award winning director from Bihar.

He directed “Deswa” in 2012 which was the first film in bhojpuri from Bihar to get selected at Indian Panorama section of International Film Festival of India. CM Nitish Kumar and his ministers saw the film and appreciated it. 2012 was 50th year of Bhojpuri Cinema. “Deswa” went on to get selected at National and International Film Festivals like International Film Festival of South Asia Film Festival of Singapore, Asian Film Festival, Goa, Habitat World Film Festival, New Delhi, Film Festival at IIM - Ahmedabad, Montage Film Festival. His next film “Mithila Makhaan” became the first film from Bihar to be made in language of Bihar, in Bihar and won the National Award. It was also selected at IFFSA - Toronto.

“Mithila Makhaan” won the National Award in 2016 and was released on Bejod OTT and later many films are released on www.bejod.in.

Now he has Written and Directed “Jackson Halt”, he is also the producer of the film along with Actress Nitu Chandra Srivastava.

NITU CHANDRA

NITU CHANDRA IS AN ACTRESS AND AWARDED BY ATAL VIHARI BAJPAYEE WHEN SHE STARTED HER CAREER AS AN ACTRESS.

Synopsis

Rishiraj Karn is an Investment banker in London. He has come to his village Madhopur for a land deal which was in dispute because of his Uncle. Uncle died a month back and Rishiraj has come for final land deal, where he collects 10 lacs in cash and rest in cheque from his cousin.

He has to catch train from Madhubani but cousin advises to take the same train from "Jackson Halt" citing bad roads and rains, Jackson Halt is a nondescript railway station from where only two train stops every day. It is a remote and eerie railway station.

Rishiraj arrives on platform where train is delayed by an hour. The station master is old and kind enough to bring tea and breakfast for Rishiraj. On a rainy night, they are joined by another person who is a Railway mechanic.

Rishiraj discovers that land behind the railways station is a graveyard, but not a regular one, station Master kills passengers who are alone and bury the body behind. THATS HIS HOBBY.

But the common interest between Station Master and Rishiraj creates a new twist. Rishiraj realised that only way to keep himself alive is to involve engage and entertain Station Master with his knowledge. Finally 2 people are killed that night and one escapes.

CAST

Thank you