SYNOPSIS

The video documentation of a 24-hour performance where Raphé and Nadia breathe new life into significant moments from their existence. Through a relay format, they revisit and reconstruct personal memories using archival images from Raphé's private video collection of family footage.

Presented in the storefront of Le Réacteur Art Collective on Rue Sainte-Catherine in Montréal in 2016, Oraison : espoir d'une réponse céleste is an interplay emerging from the artists' introspection.
