

PIZZAZZ AND PUZZY

Written, Directed, Animated, and Edited by Emma Hillebrecht (emmajhillebrecht@gmail.com)

Runtime: 5 Minutes

Logline: A young woman leaves a house party early and gets a lesson in self-confidence from a magical talking vagina.

Plot Summary

Chloe has a magic remote that allows her to replay conversations and hear them again. There's just one problem - the remote twists the words of others to sound worse than they actually are. After using the device at a party, Chloe gets a magical visit from Vicky the Talking Vagina. Vicky uses wit and whimsy to try and convince Chloe to put the remote down and live confidently in the moment.

Director's Statement

Has anxious thinking ever twisted how you perceive the world? For many people, overthinking about non-issues can be a common occurrence. In PIZZAZZ AND PUZZY, a young woman named Chloe wrestles with this form of self-doubt until a magical talking vagina named Vicky pays her a visit. Vicky's unabashed eccentricity and mantra of "putting your whole pussy into life" inspires Chloe to rise above her fear.

PIZZAZZ AND PUZZY is the latest of the many stop motion films I have created since I started making films at ten years old. Since then, I've graduated from Boston University's Film and Television Program and worked on shorts such as Viviana Triumphant, Loose Threads and the Silly Little Exorcism, and Aluminum Assets. Telling empowering and original stories is important to me, and it was a joy to make this film about overcoming insecurities alongside my wonderful actors.

Julia Rothstein - Voice of Vicky (@juliasrothstein on Instagram)

I am a recent graduate of Boston University's Film & Television program with a minor in Theatre Arts. Performance has always been one of my greatest passions, and it has been such a joy working with Emma in many of her projects. Bringing life and spirit to Vicky has given me so many wonderful, hilarious memories, and I hope you enjoy this film as much as I do!

Tori Van Loon - Voice of Chloe (@torvanloon on Instagram)

I recently graduated from Boston University's School of Theatre with a BFA in Acting, so I'm very excited about this film being my first post-graduation project. Emma and I have talked about working together on a project since we met back in high school, and I'm so grateful that we were finally able to make it happen! I had such a blast working on this hilarious and thought-provoking film, and I'm so excited to share it with you!
