

Film

MusArt

Tragedy to Triumph

Description

Professional Violinist and Painter, Randall Vemer has ventured into filmmaking. His tragedy to triumph biopic MusArt reveals what happened when his ability to play music was taken away. The film is filled with striking oil paintings of musicians from around the world. Hauntingly lovely music is scored and timed, not only to enhance the viewer's enjoyment of Vemer's classical style images but also to point out which instrument is highlighted within the rich and ethereal paintings. The film is a winner in over 50 film festivals around the world.

Bio

Randall Vemer has played in symphony orchestras in US, France, Italy, and Spain, including Principal Viola of The Oregon Symphony for 20 years. After a career in music, a 20 year career in classical oil painting ensued. He created the multimedia Art exhibit entitled MusArt which is touring around the US with 40 musician paintings, film, book, and instrument QR codes.

www.VemerPainter.com

