

THE PROJECT

STAY

Stay was birthed from the minds of Maura Pierlot, Victoria Hopkins and The Profit.

Inspired by the monologue "Now You See Me" from the incredible writing of Author Maura Pierlot in her works on "Fragments". This script was translated through the medium of Hip-Hop lyricism via The Profit and presented visually through the short film by Victoria Hopkins.

Stay is a dedication to those who know or understand the impact of mental health. A Soundtrack of the journey through the peaks and valleys that come along with that battle. An audio representation of the inner dialogue that serves as the reminder to set sights on the light at the end of the tunnel to overcome and STAY.
