Synopsis (46 words)

A young woman had to flee the country after the February 2021 coup d'état in Myanmar. The activist and CDMers* were brutally captured and imprisoned. Very few came out from Myanmar military interrogations. Some chose death over military tortures. For her, dying was not an option.

(*Civil Disobedience Movement Participant)

Biography

Na Gyi, Filmmaker.

Na Gyi is a (Myanmar) writer, producer, and director, known for his feature films, “Mi” (2019) and “What Happened to the Wolf?” (2021). His debut feature film “Mi” won the Best Director of Photography Award at AIFFA (2019) and was nominated for the Best Picture Award. “Mi” also won the Best Director of Photography Award at the STAR AWARDS (2019). Filmmaker Statement

Filmmaking is hard. Making a film when you are on the run is even more challenging. It seemed almost impossible. I revolt against the military dictator by making this film. This film is inspired by true events. This is one of many stories from the February 2021 coup d'état in Myanmar.
