Logline

YOU ARE MINE is a psychological thriller about an emotionally traumatized brother who wants to keep his older sister all to himself.

Synopsis

The mother has two children: a sister, Casey, who is 22 years old, and a younger brother, Tom, who is 18. Tom wants to protect Casey and help her escape from their mother's pathological control. The mother becomes crazier after Casey runs away and makes Tom become Casey to find a replacement. Under pathological control, Tom becomes distorted; he wants to get his sister by in an extremely pathological way. He cooperates with his mother to set a trap and pretend to be a good person to mislead his sister Casey to come back home again.

Director's statement

YOU ARE MINE is a psychological thriller that delves into the intricate web of familial relationships, control, and the consequences of unchecked psychological manipulation.

The story explores the theme of family, and control in a dark side. There are three characters in the story, a younger brother TOM a sister CASEY, and their MOTHER

The story is told from TOM's perspective. The film takes the audience on a journey as Tom shows how the world is seen in his world.

As a director, I intend to create an immersive experience that makes audiences feel the creepy and dark world and attract their attention

CAST

TOM

I have been passionate about acting since a young age. I regularly perform on stage in theatre productions and plays. I participate annually in a number of Eisteddfods and I have won many awards for my performances. I am confident in front of the camera, both acting and modelling. I have obtained Trinity College London Speech & Drama qualifications annually since 2015. I have undertaken several workshops and screen acting courses. I memorise scripts easily and I am able to do several accents.
