To whom it may concern.

I hereby certify that Veronica Pamoukaghlian is currently enrolled in the experimental cinema program at Mientras tanto CINE. She has been a student since April 2023, developing her experimental film CECI N'EST PAS SOLVEIG as a student project.

Mientras tanto CINE is an experimental film program and a space for experimentation where students develop their skills and shoot and develop their own 16mm films.

Mientras tanto CINE hosts an international film festival and various screening events all over Uruguay where experimental films from all over the world are carefully curated and shown.
