

HOPE YOU'RE DOING WELL

SHORT SYNOPSIS

Hope You're Doing Well tells the story of Daniel and Harry, two young men who used to be best friends. After running into each other in a convenience store, Daniel looks back at their past and how far they have grown from each other. Someone who used to be so close, is now nothing more than a stranger.

BEN HARMAN - EXECUTIVE PRODUCER, WRITER & DIRECTOR

Ben Harman is a Canadian student filmmaker currently attending Red Deer Polytechnic in the Film Production program. He focuses on directing and writing but has experience in several production departments. He has worked on various student productions, including By Candlelight (2021), Maestro (2022), and The Janitor (2023). Ben won the "Best Student Film" award at the 2023 AMPIA Rosie Awards for his work on The Janitor (2023). Through his work, Ben hopes to tell stories that provide audiences with new and unexpected perspectives on the world.

BROOKE PFEIFER - EXECUTIVE PRODUCER & CINEMATOGRAPHER

Brooke Pfeifer is a fourth-year film production student at Red Deer Polytechnic, and an aspiring cinematographer. She has worked on many productions – student and independent – as a director of photography, camera operator, and first assistant camera. The productions Brooke has worked on include the short films Maestro (2022) and The Janitor (2023), as well as the music video Long Division (2022). In the fall of 2023, Brooke won the "Best Student Film" award at the 2023 AMPIA Rosie Awards for her writing and cinematography on The Janitor (2023). In addition to working in film, Brooke is a professional photographer specializing in portrait photography.
