

Ten small crabs

Ten small crabs
found ten small candies
and sat on the rock
to eat them.

But the octopuses came
and grabbed their legs,
and got their sweets,
and in the end...

they were all alone
staring at the wave,
oh, the small crabs...
what a pity...

they were all alone
staring at the wave,
oh, the small crabs...
what a pity!

There comes a turtle
who sees them sad and lonely,
and takes them in her nest
into a cave.

She offers them lollipops,
chocolates,
ice-creams, strawberry sorbet,
and tarts...

And our small crabs
will throw a party,
under the broken mast...

And our small crabs
will throw a party,
under the broken mast!
