Calvin Waldau

portrays Henry "Hen" Boyd

Calvin Waldau was born in Connecticut, lived in Michigan and grew up in Southwest Florida. He has a curious mind and a playful wit. Calvin played competitive soccer until he was 12, where he found theatre. Calvin instantly fell in love with theater and decided he wanted to pursue it to a high degree.

In eighth grade, starring as Flick in the Florida Repertory Theatre professional production of A Christmas Story, this only furthered Calvin's love for theatre. Calvin decided that this was how he wanted to spend his days, on the stage or in front of the camera. He believes that committing himself to the Arts is the best way for him to serve others, as an entertainer. Making people laugh, cry, or just lose themselves in a story for a little bit (but mostly laugh) is his purpose in life.

Skye Marie Sena

portrays Natalie Newman

I'm a New Yorker, born and raised in Brooklyn. It was a moment in Brooklyn that led me to my decision to pursue a career in musical theatre. I was five years old. My parents (they're amazing) had a tradition where they introduced both my sister and me to the theatre with a trip to see Beauty and the Beast when we turned five. I loved every moment of it. Later that year, my sister was given the role of Maria in her school's rendition of The Sound of Music. The moment I saw her grace the stage, it took my breath away. I didn't know that this was something she could do and yet there she was doing it. It wasn't long before I realized that I could do it too.

I relocated with my family to Naples, Florida right before I began high school and I brought my love for the arts with me. It was there that I became a member of the International Thespian Society (troupe 5876 forever!), and I eventually made the decision to pursue my passion at Florida Southern College in Lakeland. I now have my Bachelor of Fine Arts degree in musical theatre and I'm looking forward to exploring the world and telling its stories! My experience on Apples, Oranges, Lemons & Limes is my first venture in performing on film. I absolutely loved it. I look forward to exploring more into that world in the near future.

Juan Rodriguez Leon

portrays Ryan

Proud to be Hispanic, I am an Actor born and raised in Fort Myers, FL. I have worked on a music video project for Grammy-winning Artist Roddy Ricch. My goals are to aim high, from earning recognition and awards by major Hollywood associations including the Oscars, Golden Globes, and the Emmys to becoming a filmmaker of my own.

My overall goal shares both ambitions, I want to inspire people to become something amazing or help their communities through the art of film and acting.

Valeria Di Babbo

portrays Rebecca

Valeria Di Babbo is a 22-year-old Venezuelan actor based in Miami, FL. She found her love for the performing arts as a child when she began her training in flamenco, and later for singing when she joined her high school's choir. She didn't find her love for acting until the age of 17 when she participated in her first musical theater production. Since then, she has been lucky enough to continue gaining experience.

Some theater credits include: "Rodger's and Hammerstein's Cinderella" (Cinderella), "Thoroughly Modern Millie" (Millie Dillmount), "The Wedding Singer" (Holly), and "Peter x Wendy" (Tinker Bell).

When the pandemic hit, she began participating in award-winning indie and student films where she has been able to find her strengths as an actor and meet incredible people.

Jim Barbour

portray: Mason

Jim Barbour is a 60 year old native of Lexington, Kentucky and a 26 year resident of Southwest Florida whose creative pursuits include comedy writing and performing stand-up. Jim makes his acting debut in Apples, Oranges, Lemons & Limes in the role of Mason, who is open to allowing two young strangers into his home in the middle of the night, and using the opportunity to dispense advice on love and romance.

A graduate of Eastern Kentucky University with a Bachelor's Degree in Broadcast Journalism, he has the versatility to portray the older, more mature, good guy, bad guy, funny guy, crazy guy or anything in between. Equally comfortable on the comedy stage or set, Jim looks forward to future opportunities within the Southwest Florida film community.

Apples, Oranges, Lemons & Limes

Can we show the brighter side of alcohol consumption without all the guilt and tragedy within cinema? This no-budget coming of age film tells an unconventional love story revolving the sure bliss of good times no matter how ominous they may be. We address the toll of what social anxiety, low self-esteem, and identity crisis can take while sharing examples of how to cope with these mental health challenges. We are every proud of this film.

My ambitions in filmmaking are very high. The goal today is to create more films more often. I love meeting actors, producers, investors, and distributors alike who makes it all a reality.
