

ALLIANCE

a documentary film

A STORY OF BRAVERY, IMMIGRATION, RESILIENCE, AND FAMILY.

Fleeing from the persecution of a tyrannical Russian czar to the desolate fields of a new world, forty-three families traveled across the ocean in 1882 and founded the first successful Jewish farming colony in America.

Over the next few decades, more than 300 other immigrant families would join them.

*This is... ALLIANCE.

Produced and Directed by Susan Kheirmai Donnelly
A Little Buttercup Films Production

ALLIANCE is a documentary film about the improbable and inspiring success of a first-time social experiment — the Alliance Colony of New Jersey.

This is not just a Jewish story, it's an American story. Told through the words of descendants, historians, genealogists, modern Jewish farmers, and more, this film highlights the colony's role in Jewish and American history, immigration, and the lives of generations of American Jews.

Be a Founding Friend! For more information on the film or to make a tax-deductible donation, please visit www.alliancefilm.com.

 @AllianceDoc

