Director's Biography

Jaime Ng is a Singaporean animator and artist who recently earned her BFA in Animation from Nanyang Technological University. With a passion for the eccentric and humorous, she enjoys exploring the creative and unexpected.

Her graduation film, "Neh Neh Pok", which she both wrote and directed, is loosely inspired by her own experiences.

Her films have screened at multiple international film festivals, including the Annecy International Animated Film Festival (MIFA), 24FPS International Animation Awards and Anim!Arte International Student Animation Festival of Brazil

This film is loosely adapted from events in my own life. The title "Neh Neh Pok" is a Hokkien phrase for "Breasts". The film explores women's body issues and is, in a way, a love letter to all the flat-chested girls and women out there.
