

DAYS IN THE FOREST

(India, 21:56, Kumaoni, Hindi, English, Bengali)

Our film is an independent production made with a lot of love.

The inception of the story lies in our own experiences of living and operating a homestay in the remote Himalayas. Outsiders visit the mountains and forests for respite, while the locals ward them off from dangers that only they know about.

Shot in the Himalayan forests of Uttarakhand, and in the noisy concrete jungle of New Delhi, the film seeks to highlight the cyclical nature of existence and how stories can naturally flow from one person to another.

Thank you for considering our film for selection into your Film Festival.

With regards,
Sambit Dattachaudhuri (Director)
Disha Kapkoti (Producer)

