Synopsis

A young girl living in the mountains of Uttarakhand tries to scare off visitors to the forest by making up stories.

Director's Statement

Set in Kumaon, Uttarakhand, 'Days in the Forest' deals with the nature of existence around a Himalayan forest. What gives the safety of privacy and relaxation for some is a part of everyday living for others.

The forest offers respite yet it also has its own threats. It is also a film about storytelling and the belief that inside of everyone lies an urge to tell their own stories through their own chosen medium.

A cinematic still from a film showing two women sitting on a patterned rug in a lush green forest. The woman on the left has long, wavy dark hair and is wearing a dark blue jacket over a grey shirt. The woman on the right has short dark hair, wears glasses, a red top, and a patterned shawl. She has visible tattoos on her arms. The background is filled with dense green foliage.
