LAKAD BAGGHA-1

SYNOPSIS

A balls to the walls action film that deals with the underbelly of illegal animal trade and the inhuman treatment of voiceless creatures. A protagonist, who lets his punches and flying kicks (Krav-Maga) does all the talking and becomes the much needed voice of our turmoiled co-habitants (Dogs) on the planet. But its ain't just an action movie...

Present Day - "Street dogs across Kolkata are disappearing" - An antagonist runs a crazy wicked agency using the Kolkatta port to sell animals - from rare turtles to (extinct) birds - but on the side also takes up illegal contracts from middle class bengali "bhodroloks" (Gen-tlemen) to take out "disturbing" street dogs. The agency is based in the deep end of Chinatown where an iconic restaurant/ Pet Shop is actually just a facade for all sorts of illegal animal trade exchange.

SYNOPSIS

A biryani racket (based on facts from Kolkata where dog meat is used) as an undercurrent. The Kingpin is an ambitious hustler who has organized this crime to a meticulous level. He has the local municipality in his pocket. Until his men lose a Hyena (kidnapped from Corbett for a delivery) & get involved with a wrong simpleton. A 27 year old fights for the safety of stray dogs in Kolkata & unearths the biggest animal trade racket.

A missing dog, a missing Hyena, a female crime branch inspector - hot on everyones tail!

Anshuman Jha's 'Lakadbaggha' to be released as a comic book

“Lakadbaggha’ has been a dream project, and seeing it expand into the comic book realm is exciting and one which will live beyond us. I am thrilled to create this with Brittain who believes in the concept of becoming the voice of the voiceless as much as I do,” Jha said in a statement.

Jha said the upcoming launch of the animal lover vigilante comic book, ‘Lakadbaggha (The Hyena)’, is created by American illustrator Brittain Peck.

SYNOPSIS

Weeks before Arjun and Akshara are supposed to get married, Arjun's sanity is kicked into the nuts when Akshara goes missing! Akshara was on a mission in Bondega - a forest island near North Sulawesi - to investigate a high-stakes animal trafficking case.

This is the play area of a dangerous animal trade Kingpin - Mario.

It's impossible to reach Mario, however, there is a golden opportunity.

Mario is hosting a bunch of billionaires to his island for a three-day martial arts tournament, which of course is just a facade. The real agenda is to auction his prized possession - the lone surviving celebes crested macaque, locally known as, The "Yaki" Monkey; the most "human-like" animal.

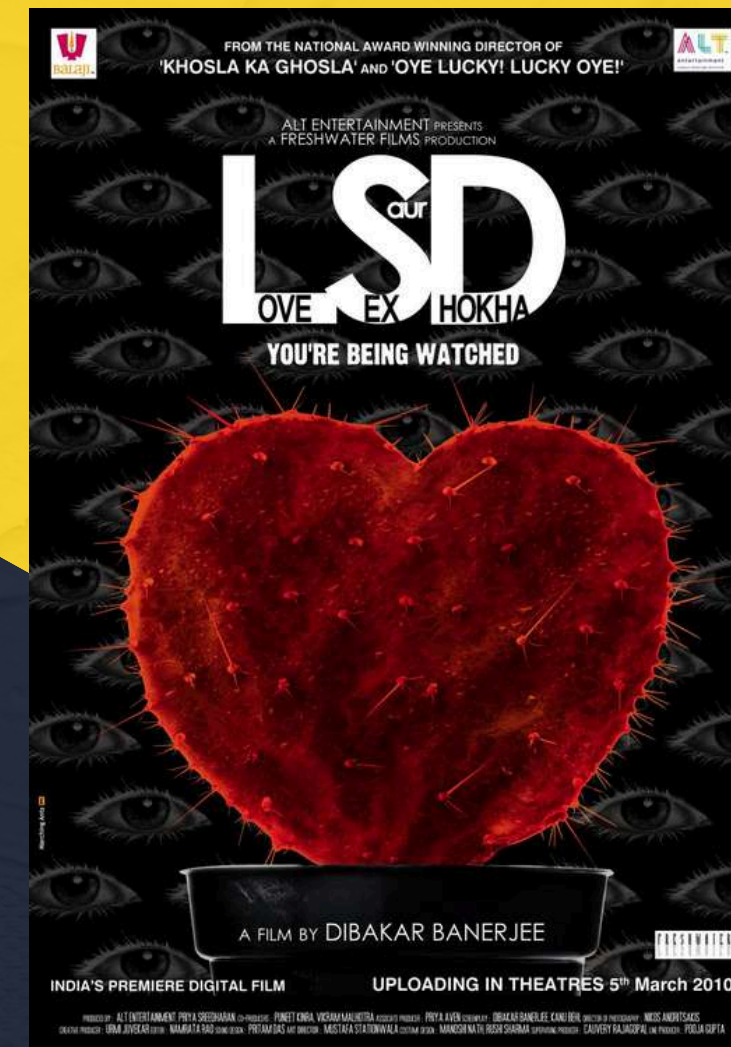

A balls-to-the-walls action film with the biggest hand-to-hand combat sequences ever captured on screen.
