"Dear Abbi & Anne,

Finally screened your film. What a mammoth undertaking, the dancers are wonderful as dancers, choreographers and spokespersons for why they are so engaged in dance as men of all personal, social and political persuasions. Beautifully shot and composed and not once was I bored with this huge cinematic achievement.

*Congrats.
Sam"*

"It's clear from the first frame, the first shots, and the first cuts how good it is. There's not a single cut, shot, or sentence in the entire film that could be said to be extra. The subject is so intertwined with the filmmaker's perspective that the film, subject, and characters become one. A delicate, sensitive, and tasteful human perspective has overcome all the dangers inherent in this type of film."
