(To the tune of 'Rain Rain Go Away)

“Reds ignite,

Oranges smite,

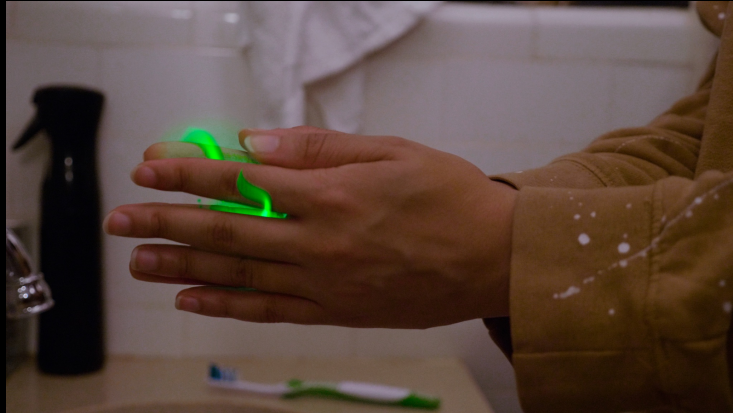

Yellows are there to give light.

Greens will grow as the Blue water flows...

And Violets- ?

(End of song)

Well... you seem to know so much about me. Why don't you finish it?”

SUMMARY

A week after the Spring Moon, two witches (a floral spell-caster and one whose powers are unknown) from different antagonistic families are put into separate races against time in search for the floral witches missing UnGuarded sister, potentially taken by the other's dangerous estranged family. Truths are revealed if they can put their differences aside for the same want.

Cast

Denisse Juliana is a Colombian actress based in New York. She recently wrapped up her feature debut, 'Legado', and completed her personal project, 'Un Día Con Sol', which she produced, directed, and starred in.

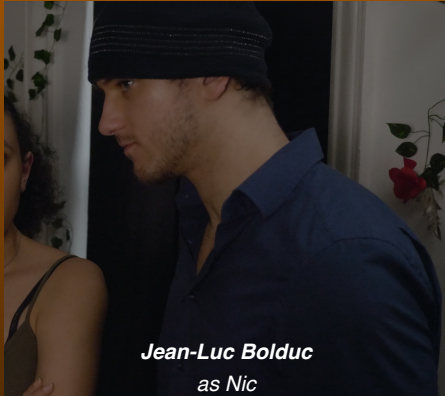

Aria Martinez is a versatile actor with roles ranging from Antigone to starring as an adaptation of Harley Quinn in the Award Winning Music Video "Quinn" by KNoWTe.

She has experience across film, theater, and new media, demonstrating a dynamic range of skills in dramatic and comedic roles.

Aria's experience and training makes her a versatile and engaging performer, equipped to tackle a variety of challenging roles.

Cast

Jean-Luc Bolduc is a stunt actor with a passion for high energy action. With a fresh perspective on the stunt world, he looked forward to coordinating/performing on “Entangled”

Brianna Levy is a Bronx, NY native with a love for trying new things. While new to acting, she’s performed throughout her childhood, taking tap and West African dance classes and singing with a choir for several years. She stumbled into acting in March of this year, performing in a short film written and directed by Virginia Colmenares. “Entangled,” co-directed by Sarah Beim and Ryan Grossbard, is the second project she’s ever worked on, and she’s excited to expand her horizons and work on more projects as she learns to balance post-grad life with her newfound love for acting.

Hi! I'm Sarah Beim, founder of Beim-ish Productions LLC.

I'm a freelance film editor who edits a wide variety of projects but specializes mostly in narrative.

Sarah Beim Bio

In 2019, I graduated from The School of Visual Arts in Manhattan with a BFA in Film and a concentration in editing. I've been studying film since High School (graduated 2015) where I studied it on a professional level.

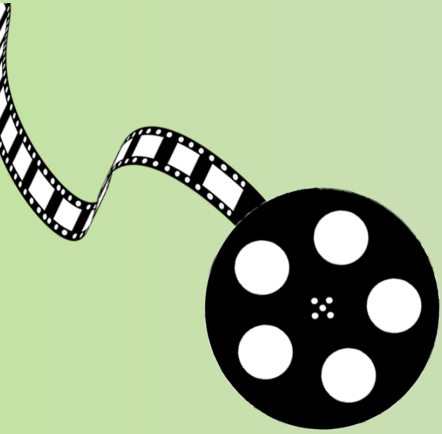

I've gotten to freelance on incredible projects by amazing clients. I've worked with award-winning filmmaker Desiree Abeyta for handful of times. Most recent was her short film "Beyond the Fog" starring actress Paige Davis and before that a short "Anne" that won a handful of awards during its festival run including a Silver Telly. It was also a 2023 Academy Awards "Best Live Action Short" qualifier – FYC.

My skills are very diverse and I have a meticulous eye for detail. Some examples are a keen eye with continuity, pacing. I've been trained in Adobe Premiere, After Effects and Photoshop. I am very dedicated and hardworking to every project given, big or small.

I have loved storytelling ever since I was little. Creating something from nothing is exciting and freeing. I have always been fascinated by dreams, sci-fi, and dystopian.

These genres inspired me to create my own unique worlds. A lot of my works are inspired by real-world issues but with a twist, as a way to escape but still shed light on issues that need to be addressed.

Production Company

Beim-ish Productions LLC is a solely independent/self-funded non-union production. Our mission with this company is to give the underrepresented a voice. Founded by Sarah Beim, a queer Jewish filmmaker, she understands how it feels to be misrepresented in the media and wants to change that.
