

SYNOPSIS

Shaukat, an ordinary expatriate, faced job loss and returned home empty-handed. Sumayya, his wife, embraced the sorrow of their childless marriage but found solace in the care and love provided by her hardworking husband.

Navigating the intricacies of Shaukat's family, where traditions, rituals, vows, and occasional lamentations coexisted, proved challenging for Sumayya.

Remaining steadfast in her commitment to true faith and resisting immoral influences, Sumayya endured significant hardships.

As Shaukat, with no clear path in sight, explored every avenue of life, seeking glimmers of hope, Sumayya stood by his side. Together, they embarked on a journey filled with challenges and the pursuit of new possibilities, determined to face whatever life threw their way.
