I'm looking for something evil
Something I can't talk about
I'm looking for something baby
Something that will make me shout

Stick a pin right through my eye
Tell me if you feel my pain
Stick a needle up in your arm
Tell me if it feels the same

The beast in me tells me what to do
Your killing me I'm killing you

Mirror Mirror can't you see
Can't you see just what I am
My taste for murder my craving for blood
The suicidal future of man

I like to find the truth in lies
Cause every lie hides the truth inside

The beast in me tells me what to do
Your killing me I'm killing you

The son of man the son I am
Come and let's confront your fears
I pledge allegiance to the national fag
Nominated national queer

I've shared the darkness that I feel
I've shared the reasons why I kill
If I'm the devil lets make a deal
Give me your heart your soul I will steal

The beast in me tells me what to do

Your killing me I'm killing you
The beast in me tells me what to do
Your killing me I'm killing you
