

Cover Letter – The Boy & The Wolf

Dear [Festival/Program/Recipient],

My name is Joshua Mueller, and I am pleased to submit our short film THE BOY & THE WOLF for your consideration. This project is part of an ongoing series of films exploring fear, childhood, and the fragile line between imagination and reality. Created with a dedicated local team and a “no-budget, full-heart” approach, the film blends psychological tension with emotional realism.

Below is the full list of credited artists who helped bring this story to life:

Written by:

- Joshua Mueller
- Tristan Matzkeit

Directed by:

- Joshua Mueller

Produced by:

- Joshua Mueller

Director of Photography:

- Brian J. Rassmann

Music by:

- Lorenzo Breilm Roncarati

Music Rights:

All music used in The Boy & The Wolf is original and fully licensed.

All rights are owned by the filmmakers (Joshua Mueller & Lorenzo Breilm Roncarati).

There are no third-party rights or external clearances required.

---

Edited / Sound Edited by:

- Joshua Mueller

Cast:

- İpek Mavi Bayraktar – Actress
- Valentino Resera – Actor
- Christoph Visone – Supporting Actor
- Lauren Mika Beck – Supporting Actor
- Julian Ennulat-Rios – Supporting Actor

Costume Design:

- Dorontina Zeqiri

Hair & Make-up:

- Patricia Fuchs

Set Design:

- Vera Saric

We are incredibly proud of what our team created together, and we believe the film’s themes — growing up in difficult environments, the origins of fear, and the resilience of children — will resonate strongly with audiences.

Thank you very much for your time and consideration.

We would be honored to share THE BOY & THE WOLF with your festival.

Warm regards,
Joshua Mueller

THE BOY &
THE WOLF

