A grieving landscape painter pays a company to create an AI voice model of his dead lover and becomes increasingly enthralled by her stunning descriptions of the cyber-afterlife.

How It Works:
Our advanced AI algorithms will take an accurate model of your loved one's samples and social media insights. This reconnects with the essence of your departed closure like never before. Embrace the Directed by Elyas Masrou, a Moroccan-American filmmaker and engineer based in Brooklyn, NY. As a working engineer, Elyas has worked in venture-backed AI startups, corporate research labs, and even on the engineering team for NASA's Curiosity Mars Rover. As a filmmaker, he's been backed by Hollywood production companies to tell personal stories about AI, personal robots, art, and grief.

Executive Produced by Fanshen Cox, a multi-talented artist, producer, and educator. She is the founder of TruJuLo Productions, a media company dedicated to promoting stories that speak truth in pursuit of justice in service of love, and previously was the Senior Vice President of Development and Impact at Pearl Street Films, founded by Matt Damon and Ben Affleck. Currently, Fanshen serves as the DEIA Initiative Manager at the California Film Commission.
