

Elliott Bales, US Army, Ret. Actor. Writer. Veteran. Strategist. Raconteur

Filmmaker Biography

Elliott Bales is the Founder and CEO of Stalking Horse Productions LLC, a Virginia-based film, print, and audio production company. Stalking Horse Productions creates, produces, and acquires stories in video, audio, and written media to share under-served narratives about communities and regions that are “hidden”. There are great stories being created everyday by individuals and teams who create art out of passion with resources scraped together. The changes in the media landscape provide ways to get those stories to an audience.

Elliott is also an award-winning actor and veteran living in the Washington DC metropolitan area. After a 26-year career in the United States Army, he finally returned to the path of story teller he began some five decades ago. A life of real-world experience in the military, industry and non-profit sectors provides the material to infuse characters with a genuineness and relatability that connects with audiences, critics and fellow performers. His work ethic and commitment to the production team as a dedicated partner are hallmarks of his efforts.

Elliott is a member of SAG-AFTRA and Actor’s Equity and his film and television credits include A Civil Civil Servant, Remote, Legends and Lies: Patriots, The Coming Storm, The Sultan and the Saint and the award-winning short film Wireless. He has also appeared in numerous cable television and industrial film productions. His regional theater credits productions at Arena Stage, Roundhouse Theater, Studio Theater, Folger Shakespeare Theater, Theater Alliance, First Stage, and Riverside Theater . Elliott has also narrated a number of successful audio books including How to Self Publish, The Crawlerz Series, Promises Kept, Saxum, and How to Learn and Memorize Russian Vocabulary available on Audible. He is a proud member of Veterans in Media and Entertainment
