SUMMARY

“CREATE AND DIRECT FILMS WITH A GREAT TEAM TO SPREAD MESSAGES OF VALUE TO HUMANITY”

BIOGRAPHY

Mohamed Aziz Abdallah is an independent director and producer, born on July 25, 1999, in Zaghouan, Tunisia. He began filmmaking as a hobby in 2017, then worked as an assistant director on television projects and series. He later pursued formal academic studies in the field from 2020 to 2022, after which he began working as an independent producer and director. He has completed numerous audiovisual projects, particularly in film, and has participated in international and local film festivals. His most notable works include the short fiction film "So Hut, Note Here...", the experimental documentary series "Living in Nature with Mazigh", and the documentary film "Maryam." He has also worked independently producing marketing and music videos, as well as other audiovisual content.
