Andi Fins!

I am Xavier Alexander, a High School filmmaker and I love your music. It fits the exact niché I need for my student short film that I am working on.

I was wondering if I could use your song “How Will You Know?” for film festivals and a possible release later on my youtube channel. obviously after the film has its music permissions cleared and with your approval for use in the movie.

The film will be called “If I Only Had Wings” and I am also done with the short film. Here’s the most recent rough cut of the film, its 16 minutes: https://m.youtube.com/watch?v=0IuMJtd-tFw&ra=m

Thank you so much for reading. I’d be happy to provide any more information on the project if you would like as well.
