Mo vam Wolfe

a HORROR-COMEDY
by Gary B. Haley

THE HOOK

Immortality was the easy part.

An 83-year-old werewolf-vampire who still looks 25 falls for a seductive young witch promising a cure. Then he discovers her spell is also a heist - and the monster she unleashes may be the first one he can finally control.

ROMANCE / REVENGE / REINVENTION

MO VAM WOLFE

Three creatures. One conscience.

WEREWOLF A full-moon curse, raw physical power, and decades spent behind a cage door.

VAMPIRE Immortality, a missing reflection, and the ability to move unseen as a bat.

MAN A lonely romantic who remembers every mistake and still chooses mercy.

The cure does not erase the monster. It gives Mo agency.

THE WORLD

Sixty years hiding in plain sight.

Bitten in 1966. Made immortal soon after. Mo has survived by disappearing - behind old doors, forged identities, careful investments, and a steel cage timed to the moon.

Then New York gives him a reason to be seen.

GOTHEN Z. WICKE

The spellcaster who did not plan to fall in love.

Twenty-four. Brilliant. Guarded. A practicing witch with enough nerve to promise the impossible: make Mo human again.

WANTS Power, freedom, and a future she controls.

HIDES The romance began as a con.

LEARNS Love is the one risk she cannot calculate.

VANESSA

The accomplice who keeps choosing the con.

Gothen's roommate, fellow witch, and sharpest bad influence. Vanessa sees Mo's fortune as the score of a lifetime - even after Gothen starts seeing the man.

She turns the cure into leverage, the betrayal into content, and every escape route into a bigger problem.

Every promise creates a sharper betrayal.

01

THE CURE

A forbidden spell. A private island. A full moon ritual that fuses Mo's human and monster selves.

02

THE CON

Gothen and Vanessa gain access to Mo's wealth while he helps them punish an identity thief.

03

THE CHOICE

When the betrayal goes public, Mo can become the monster everyone expects - or prove he never was.

A romantic caper that keeps tightening into a supernatural reckoning.

Built for memorable reveals.

01 A mirror reveals the wolf The human part doesn't reflect, only the werewolf stares back.

02 A full-moon island ritual Magic, machinery, and body horror collide inside a reinforced cage.

03 A bat-sized surveillance caper Mo weaponizes the part of the curse nobody expects.

04 A window-smashing final confrontation The monster arrives. Mercy becomes the surprise.

A monster story about choosing what you become.

Mo begins the story imprisoned by biology, secrecy, and loneliness. The spell gives him control, but betrayal forces the real transformation: deciding whether pain will make him cruel.

The final image reframes the wolf as protector, storyteller, and possibility.

Funny. Dangerous. Surprisingly tender.
