BIO SHORT

Andrea Hackl is an Amsterdam-based independent filmmaker and cross-disciplinary artist, working across film, expanded cinema and performance. She merges cinema and live performance into poetic, visceral & visually striking works exploring themes of freedom, empowerment, and connection. Her films, including The Disappearance of Time, Bele Beltza, Silent Fragments, and Light Rising, have won multiple awards. Her interdisciplinary performance performance Dreamer received the Award for Best Interdisciplinary Live Performance at Lensdans Festival and tours internationally.
